The Islamic Republic only executes protesters.

Violation of the law in Iran.

Hamburg , 07.08.2023, 03:04 Time

USPA NEWS - "The Islamic Republic of Iran creates laws, makes decisions, enforces them, disregards justice, is very hypocritical, deceitful, and disorderly. This writing aims to familiarize you with the corrupt Khamenei government. Regarding two individuals, Saeed Toosi and Reza Taghavi, Saeed Toosi recites the Quran for Khamenei, and Reza Taghavi is the Minister of Guidance. According to Islamic penal and constitutional laws in Iran, these two individuals should have been executed by now. However, it is evident that executions are only carried out against opponents, heroic young protesters of Iran.

I do not support the death penalty in 2023 for anyone and firmly believe that this law should not be executed even for the worst individuals. However, when I see that the Islamic Republic only executes its opponents due to dissent with its regime and imposes severe religious decrees, such as opposing Islam or insulting it, and executes them, I cannot be silent and don't write this news article for you , and everybody everyone Must To Understand What is Going On In Iran

Saeed Toosi is a person who recites the Quran individually for Khamenei. About two years ago, many Iranian families suddenly discovered that their children had been sexually abused in Quran education classes, and the fear of these children from Saeed Toosi's powerful position under Ali Khamenei led them to keep this matter hidden. However, one of the families became extremely angry when they found a video their child had taken as evidence, and they shared this information with the free world media. According to Islamic penal law, a person who engages in homosexual acts should be executed, but this law did not apply to Saeed Toosi.

Despite the proven crimes he committed and the sexual abuse of these children, Saeed Toosi continues to live freely with strong security measures provided by the terrorist organization, the IRGC, in Iran. Even the slightest punishment, such as imprisonment, has not been considered for him.

Reza Taghavi is the head of the Islamic Guidance Department in Gilan province, Iran. About 10 days ago, a video was published showing him engaging in a homosexual relationship with a young man at his workplace. This video received significant backlash, and the Iranian pro-democracy activists still question why opponents of the regime, who have peacefully protested and not engaged in any violent actions, are executed. For instance, Mohsen Sharifi, a 23-year-old young man, was executed solely for participating in protests against the murder of Mahsa Amini. Since then, many more opponents have been executed, but the exact number is uncertain.

On the other hand, individuals like Saeed Toosi, who have committed crimes under Islamic penal and constitutional laws in the Islamic Republic of Iran, remain free and have not faced any consequences. This reveals the moral, financial, and governmental corruption, as those affiliated with the corrupt Khamenei government are pardoned by his order. Khamenei himself is the dictator, and unless the brave and patient people of Iran stand up for their rights, the situation will not change.

It is hoped that one day the people of Iran will experience true democracy and demand their rights without any discrimination or governmental corruption. This wish can only become a reality with the support of other governments; otherwise, Khamenei has demonstrated that he is a dangerous dictator and will easily suppress and execute his opponents and violate the rights of courageous Iranian women in prisons.

Upon reflection, one can understand that the Khamenei government is full of lies and danger, and it needs to be resisted promptly; otherwise, the Ali Khamenei government poses an even greater threat than the COVID virus to the entire world. Let us hope for a day when all people around the world understand the true meaning of democracy and freedom and live together in peace and friendship.

Thank you for your time in reading this article. Please keep in mind that this article reflects my personal opinions and is the result of my own research. I hope I have been able to shed light on the depth of the crimes of the Iranian government and the dangers they pose.

In hope for freedom and equality,
Women Life Freedom.
